

Download

---

Then you will be asked if you want a repair or a windows install. Choose windows install and go ahead..

Answer:Hi, please boot your computer, the disk will be in the tray, press the F10 key, .You will have several options select the option titled recovery,you will be able to boot from your Windows, then you can use Windows Disk ,go and reinstall the OS.

Answer:Hi, I recommend you to go to the boot options and select Safe boot and that will allow you to boot the windows partition, as soon as it loads press CTRL+F2 or F8 and load Windows from there.

Answer:Hi, open the drive, go into the bios options, set boot order to CD/DVD then you will find a button on the CD/DVD drive, you need to press it to boot from the CD/DVD drive.

Answer:Hi, you need to boot the pc from the cd/dvd drive, find the bios options and select cd/dvd as your first boot option, if you can't get to the bios you can do it by pressing the F8 key before the post screen and boot from the dvd, see the above answers for more details.

Answer:Go to the bios and select cdrom as first boot and then select the windows.exe on the cdrom.

Answer:This sounds like the drive is corrupted, you need to boot from the hard drive, either from the cd or by directly booting from the cd-rom on the hard drive.

Answer:Try to boot from the cd-rom and select repair.

Answer:Hi, there is a three second delay before the screen for your bios options. Type F10 in the first three seconds before the screen loads. you should be able to boot to the cd.If it asks for a repair option just enter that.

Answer>Hello, you can install using the CD or DVD.When you boot, hit F8 and select CD or DVD drive from the menu.

Answer>Hello, it is important that your disc is in the drive, do not close the tray.Press the F10 key to open the boot options, select cd/dvd or tape drive and then windows.exe.

Answer:Go to the boot options and select cd-rom and you will find a button on the cd-rom drive press it to boot from the cd.

Answer:

