Thursday, July 22, 2012 The new release of Size Up is out!!I really think that Size Up is one of the best desktops you can download. It has the most perfect combination of very cool cool and very light skin. In this release you will find: -A new look -Plenty of customizations -New, improved and some improved features -A lot of new icons and wallpapers If you like this theme you will love the new look that I brought with me to the new release. I designed the theme following the great previews of some users (thanks!). The main goal of the new theme is to give it a polished look and a strong simplicity. I think this is the best skin I have worked on and I think you will find it really hard to live without it. If you have a problem with your skin or you want to use my customizations, you can find the instructions in the download section. Enjoy the new look! Monday, July 12, 2012 SizeUp SizeUp is one of my favorite desktop themes. I designed it following the idea of the new look that we can see in many themes today. It's simple and polished. And it has lots of options to customize it. SizeUp Description: -The window is a little more transparent than the classic windows theme. -The color of the window, the color of the icon, the font, the wallpaper, the icon pack, the border and the menu options are all customizable. -The green gradient on the window and the buttons is a nice addition. -
