Thanks! Monday, 18 December 2013 In an effort to create a free vector icon set for commercial use I thought I would start out small. The set contains office icons, web icons and icons for social media. For this free set I will be releasing a set of icons every Monday and Tuesday. So if you want to get your hands on a free set of icons sign up here and you will get a unique key when the next icons are released. You can choose between 8x8 or 16x16. The 16x16 are recommended for web icons and the 8x8 for desktop use. I have also added a column to the left hand side of the icons showing which icon set it is from. Please rate this icon set. For more great free icon sets please visit Saturday, 2 December 2013 My dear friend Dan is out of the country and so I am passing this set on to him. Hope you like it! I have added a column to the left hand side of the icons showing which icon set it is from. Please rate this icon set. For more great free icon sets please visit Tuesday, 31 October 2013 Here are the first round of icons from the set I made for my friend Andrew. Andrew asked if I could create a set of icons for him. Since he works on websites it was easy to create a set of web icons. The set contains icons for social media, web, desktop and mobile. Since we are still on the topic of working with Macromedia I have included the majority of the icons I created using Flash. I have also added a column to the left hand side of the icons showing which icon set it is from. Please rate this icon set. For more great free icon sets please visit
