FIFA stands for "Football/Soccer/AssociationFootball." But you already know that. One of the greatest sports games ever developed, FIFA is played around the world in thousands of friendly matches each year, as well as being the official game of football worldwide and the most widely-played sport in the world. The game has changed significantly over its history and now offers enhanced gameplay with a brand new FIFA Ultimate Team system, improved Player AI, expanded strategic depth, and just an incredible amount of new features. What is FIFA Ultimate Team? The core concept of FUT is to begin with a random set of players, all of whom can be custom-tuned to your specific playing style, and then unlock those players with real-world coins. Each player can have anywhere from eight to over 100 different team-defining characteristics such as age, height, style of play, speed, shooting accuracy, defensive rating, etc. This means that when you choose your players, you're not just selecting a random collection of names. You're selecting teams. What are the major features of FIFA Ultimate Team? FIFA Ultimate Team is the easiest way to build a dream team from more than 30 national teams from around the world, all playable in FUT. From the moment you start, the game allows you to build a team using real-world coins, to help you follow a simple but rewarding structure of basic, mid-range, and premium players, and then to upgrade players as you unlock them. There's a lot to learn here, and even though it's a smaller game than FIFA, it's a surprisingly deep and sophisticated system. For even more fans, you can now play FUT against other players in Domination games, and when the football season comes around, you can upload your teams and manage your squads yourself on the Web version. What are the major gameplay features of FIFA Ultimate Team? Over 30 national teams, including Brazil, Portugal, Germany, Argentina, and more. 500+ authentic clubs, including Real Madrid, Barcelona, and Manchester United. Customise your squads with more than 30,000 individual players, all with unique skills and attributes. Earn real-world coins to upgrade your players or buy them outright using Credit Cards.
