But i don't want to show the tab bar in the whole application. Any help is appreciated. A: If you are on a storyboard, you should connect the Tab Bar Controller with a UINavigationController and set it to a Style of UINavigationController. The Navigation Controller will contain the Root View Controller which will contain the Tab Bar Controller. But if you are using an XIB file, add a Tab Bar Controller and set it to a View Controller with a Navigation Controller. Now that you have all this stuff set up correctly, you should be able to just call the Hide Tab Bar on the Navigation Controller to hide the Tab Bar from the root view. And for a full discussion on the great reasons to use UINavigationController check out this video: Kursky District Kursky District () is an administrative and municipal district (raion), one of the twenty-seven in Zabaykalsky Krai, Russia.
